NARRATOR/INTERVIEWER AGREEMENT FORM

Project name: ____________________________________________________________

Date: ____________________ Interviewer: ______________________________________

File name(s): ________________________________________________________________

Narrator name: _____________________________________________________________

Your participation in this interview is completely voluntary. You may stop or withdraw from the project at any time, or refuse to answer any questions for any reason without it being held against you. Your decision whether or not to participate will have no effect on your current or future connection with anyone at Claremont Graduate University. There is no direct compensation to you for participating in this oral history project.

While there are a number of ways to provide confidentiality (use of a pseudonym, for example), the nature of this project and the subsequent archives held with Honnold/Mudd Library Special Collections is not conducive to providing anonymity. You may, of course, choose to restrict access to the audio recording or other archives materials, or choose not to have this oral history project included in the archives.

If you have any questions about this study, please contact me ______________________
